Indigenous Studies
Course Number		Class name	Description
ARTH	476	Seminar in North American Indigenous Art	Seminar in North American Indigenous Art
СОММ	394	Government and Business	Roles of government and business in the Canadian economy including effects of public policy on the business environment. Ethical foundations of government, business and personal decision-making.
CONS	370	Aboriginal Forestry	Issues the may be encountered in professional natural resources work with or for Aboriginal communities and organization, including contemporary issues of Aboriginal rights and title, traditional uses, and self-government.
CRWR	220	Introduction to Creative Writing with an Indigenous Focus	Covers three genres from fiction, poetry, creative nonfiction, radio drama, radio feature, or stageplay.
ECED	442	Supporting Indigenous Infants and Young Children within the Context of Their Communities	Supporting Indigenous Infants and Young Children within the Context of Their Communities
ENGL	231	Introduction to Indigenous Literatures	A study of cultural expression in contemporary indigenous contexts
ENGL	373	Indigenous Literature	Indigenous writing and cultural expression in national and/or international contexts. Consult department website
FNEL	180	Introduction to Endangered Language  Documentation and Revitalization	for current year's offerings.  Foundational concepts in the critical study of cultural, historical, social, and political factors that impact language loss, retention, and revival. Introducing strategies and practical methodologies for collaborative, interdisciplinary, community-based documentation and revitalization
FNEL	281	Sounds of Endangered Languages: Conservation and Revitalization	Development of skills in the perception and transcription of speech sounds in endangered languages, focusing on the diversity within BC Indigenous languages. Capacity-building techniques for digital recording, editing, analysis, and archiving; guided by community-based ethical protocols and conservation/revitalization goals.

FNEL  282 Structures of Endangered Languages: Conservation and Revitalization  Conservation and Revitalization  and analysis of grammatical structres and analysis of grammatical structres and analysis of grammatical structres and and multi-media digital annotation based ethical protocols and consert goals.  FNEL  481 Heritage Resources in Endangered First Nations Language Revitalization  Examines the complementary and libraries, archives, and museums in development, curation, preservating pertaining to First Nations language can contribute to endangered lang heritage sustainability.  FNIS  100 Indigenous Foundations  The historical, cultural, political, examined from both Indigenous perspectives.  FNIS  210 Indigenous Politics and Self-Determination  The cultural, historical, political, examined the state in self-determination struggles in relational forms and development.	ures in endangered y within BC Aboriginal ocumentation, workflow n, guided by community- vation/revitalization intersecting roles of n collections acquisition, on, and access traditions es, to explore how each uage and cultural conomic and legal issues igenous peoples in Indigenous Politics and Self-Determination  Ianguages, focusing on the diversit languages. Applied techniques in dand multi-media digital annotation based ethical protocols and conser goals.  FNEL 481 Heritage Resources in Endangered First Nations Examines the complementary and libraries, archives, and museums in development, curation, preservation pertaining to First Nations languag can contribute to endangered lang heritage sustainability.  FNIS 100 Indigenous Foundations The historical, cultural, political, each that inform the experiences of Indicanada, examined from both Indig Indigenous perspectives.  FNIS 210 Indigenous Politics and Self-Determination The cultural, historical, political, each dynamics that structure the relation Indigenous peoples and the state is self-determination struggles in relations and self-government, land	y within BC Aboriginal ocumentation, workflow a guided by community-vation/revitalization intersecting roles of a collections acquisition, on, and access traditions es, to explore how each uage and cultural conomic and legal issues genous peoples in Indigenous Politics and Self-Determination  Ianguages. Applied techniques in d and multi-media digital annotation based ethical protocols and conser goals.  Heritage Resources in Endangered First Nations Examines the complementary and libraries, archives, and museums in development, curation, preservatic pertaining to First Nations languag can contribute to endangered lang heritage sustainability.  FNIS  100  Indigenous Foundations  The historical, cultural, political, edit that inform the experiences of Indigenous perspectives.  FNIS  210  Indigenous Politics and Self-Determination  The cultural, historical, political, edity dynamics that structure the relation lindigenous peoples and the state in self-determination struggles in relative recognition, self-government, land	ocumentation, workflow a guided by community-vation/revitalization intersecting roles of a collections acquisition, on, and access traditions es, to explore how each uage and cultural conomic and legal issues genous peoples in and multi-media digital annotation based ethical protocols and conser goals.  FNEL 481 Heritage Resources in Endangered First Nations Language Revitalization Examines the complementary and libraries, archives, and museums in development, curation, preservation pertaining to First Nations language can contribute to endangered lang heritage sustainability.  FNIS 100 Indigenous Foundations The historical, cultural, political, examined from the experiences of Indicanda, examined from both Indig Indigenous perspectives.  FNIS 210 Indigenous Politics and Self-Determination The cultural, historical, political, examined from both Indigenous perspectives.  FNIS 210 Indigenous Politics and Self-Determination The cultural, historical, political, examined from both Indigenous peoples and the state in self-determination struggles in relation in the state in self-determination struggles in relation for the state in self-determination struggles	intersecting roles of collections acquisition, and access traditions es, to explore how each uage and cultural based ethical protocols and consergoals.  FNEL 481 Heritage Resources in Endangered First Nations Language Revitalization Examines the complementary and libraries, archives, and museums in development, curation, preservating pertaining to First Nations language can contribute to endangered lang heritage sustainability.  FNIS 100 Indigenous Foundations The historical, cultural, political, examined from both Indigenous perspectives.  FNIS 210 Indigenous Politics and Self-Determination The cultural, historical, political, examined from both Indigenous perspectives.  FNIS 210 Indigenous Politics and Self-Determination The cultural, historical, political, examined from both Indigenous peoples and the state in self-determination struggles in relationary controls.	intersecting roles of a collections acquisition, on, and access traditions es, to explore how each uage and cultural conomic and legal issues genous peoples in FNEL 481 Heritage Resources in Endangered First Nations Examines the complementary and libraries, archives, and museums in development, curation, preservation pertaining to First Nations language can contribute to endangered lang heritage sustainability.  FNIS 100 Indigenous Foundations The historical, cultural, political, examined from both Indigenous perspectives.  FNIS 210 Indigenous Politics and Self-Determination The cultural, historical, political, examined from both Indigenous perspectives.  FNIS examines the complementary and libraries, archives, and museums in development, curation, preservation pertaining to First Nations language can contribute to endangered	intersecting roles of a collections acquisition, on, and access traditions es, to explore how each uage and cultural conomic and legal issues genous peoples in
FNEL 481 Heritage Resources in Endangered First Nations Language Revitalization libraries, archives, and museums in development, curation, preservation pertaining to First Nations language can contribute to endangered lang heritage sustainability.  FNIS 100 Indigenous Foundations The historical, cultural, political, education that inform the experiences of Indigenous perspectives.  FNIS 210 Indigenous Politics and Self-Determination The cultural, historical, political, education dynamics that structure the relation Indigenous peoples and the state in self-determination struggles in relation recognition, self-government, land	n collections acquisition, on, and access traditions es, to explore how each uage and cultural conomic and legal issues genous peoples in
FNEL 481 Heritage Resources in Endangered First Nations Language Revitalization libraries, archives, and museums in development, curation, preservation pertaining to First Nations language can contribute to endangered lang heritage sustainability.  FNIS 100 Indigenous Foundations The historical, cultural, political, education that inform the experiences of Indigenous perspectives.  FNIS 210 Indigenous Politics and Self-Determination The cultural, historical, political, education dynamics that structure the relation Indigenous peoples and the state in self-determination struggles in relation recognition, self-government, land	n collections acquisition, on, and access traditions es, to explore how each uage and cultural conomic and legal issues genous peoples in Language Revitalization  Language Revitalization  libraries, archives, and museums in development, curation, preservation pertaining to First Nations language can contribute to endangered lang heritage sustainability.  FNIS  100  Indigenous Foundations  The historical, cultural, political, edithat inform the experiences of Indicanda, examined from both Indigenous perspectives.  FNIS  210  Indigenous Politics and Self-Determination  The cultural, historical, political, edity dynamics that structure the relation Indigenous peoples and the state in self-determination struggles in relation recognition, self-government, land	n collections acquisition, on, and access traditions es, to explore how each uage and cultural conomic and legal issues genous peoples in development, curation, preservation pertaining to First Nations languagy can contribute to endangered lang heritage sustainability.  FNIS 100 Indigenous Foundations The historical, cultural, political, edithat inform the experiences of Indigenous perspectives.  FNIS 210 Indigenous Politics and Self-Determination The cultural, historical, political, edity dynamics that structure the relation Indigenous peoples and the state in self-determination struggles in relation recognition, self-government, land	on, and access traditions es, to explore how each uage and cultural conomic and legal issues genous peoples in Pertaining to First Nations languag can contribute to endangered lang heritage sustainability.  FNIS  100  Indigenous Foundations  The historical, cultural, political, edit that inform the experiences of Indigenous perspectives.  FNIS  210  Indigenous Politics and Self-Determination  The cultural, historical, political, edity dynamics that structure the relation lindigenous peoples and the state in self-determination struggles in relation recognition, self-government, land	es, to explore how each uage and cultural conomic and legal issues genous peoples in FNIS  100  Indigenous Foundations  The historical, cultural, political, editor that inform the experiences of Indigenous perspectives.  FNIS  210  Indigenous Politics and Self-Determination  The cultural, historical, political, editor dynamics that structure the relation Indigenous peoples and the state is self-determination struggles in relation recognition, self-government, land	uage and cultural conomic and legal issues genous peoples in heritage sustainability.  FNIS  100  Indigenous Foundations  The historical, cultural, political, edit that inform the experiences of Indicanda, examined from both Indigenous perspectives.  FNIS  210  Indigenous Politics and Self-Determination  The cultural, historical, political, edit dynamics that structure the relation Indigenous peoples and the state is self-determination struggles in relations recognition, self-government, land	conomic and legal issues genous peoples in FNIS  100  Indigenous Foundations  The historical, cultural, political, edithat inform the experiences of Indigenous perspectives.  FNIS  210  Indigenous Politics and Self-Determination  The cultural, historical, political, edithat dynamics that structure the relation Indigenous peoples and the state is self-determination struggles in relations recognition, self-government, land	genous peoples in that inform the experiences of India Canada, examined from both India Indigenous perspectives.  FNIS  210  Indigenous Politics and Self-Determination  The cultural, historical, political, ed dynamics that structure the relation Indigenous peoples and the state in self-determination struggles in relation recognition, self-government, land	genous peoples in FNIS  210  Indigenous Politics and Self-Determination  The cultural, historical, political, ed dynamics that structure the relation Indigenous peoples and the state is self-determination struggles in relation recognition, self-government, land	• • •
FNIS  210  Indigenous perspectives.  The cultural, historical, political, ed dynamics that structure the relation Indigenous peoples and the state in self-determination struggles in relation recognition, self-government, land	enous and non-FNIS  210  Indigenous Politics and Self-Determination  dynamics that structure the relation  Indigenous peoples and the state in self-determination struggles in relation recognition, self-government, land dynamics that structure the relation in the state in self-determination struggles in relation recognition, self-government, land Indigenous peoples and the state in self-determination struggles in relation, self-government, land	· - self-determination struggles in rela recognition, self-government, land	• recognition, self-government, land tion to constitutional ldevelonment.	claims, and economic development
FNIS 220 Representation and Indigenous Cultural Politics Representation, identity, and cultural Politics	ral politics through Indigenous literature, film, and the	visual arts; the relationship between these sites o	f cultural production and the self-determination struggles of	·
FNIS 300 Writing First Nations A writing-intensive course examini	ng approaches to writing Indigenous research: Representation Indigenous critiques of research ar
Indigenous, feminist and cultural s	• writing ethnography, oral history, a	• • methods.	ina relateu rescaren methods.
FNIS 310 Critical Indigenous Theory Seminar Adapting and integrating current c	onceptual paradigms in the humanities, social sciences, pe	rforming arts, and Indigenous studies into approache	s in First Nations/Indigenous Studies, includ	ing identity construction, political and cultural	self-determination, representation, essentialism/authe FNIS 320 Critical Indigenous Methodologies and Ethics Responsible and community-based Indigenous perspective; methods f assessing research materials, critic	, - history/qualitative research intervi research ethics in the design and in	· community-based student research FNIS 451 Indigenous Feminisms The historical, cultural, political, ar	ns. Indigenous teminist contemporary Indigenous feminisr	•
contemporary Indigenous feminism methodologies, theory, and praxis	in relation to contemporary Indigenous feminism	in relation to contemporary Indigenous feminism methodologies, theory, and praxis	in relation to contemporary Indigenous feminism methodologies, theory, and praxis contemporary Indigenous politics a	in relation to and social justice
contemporary Indigenous feminism methodologies, theory, and praxis contemporary Indigenous politics a movements.	in relation to and social justice works designed and

FNIS	456	Indigenous Two Spirit and Ouger Studies	Cultural contexts, scholarship, literature, and artistic FINIS	450	Indigenous Two-Spirit and Queer Studies	Cultural contexts, scholarship, literature, and artistic expressions of Queer, LGBTI, and Two-Spirited Indigenous people, both as an academic area of study and as lived experience and relationship.
FNIS	401C	Special Topics - SPECIAL TOPICS	Topics will vary from year to year. Consult the departmental website: http://fnsp.arts.ubc.ca.
FRST	370	Community Forests and Community Forestry	Community forests and community forestry throughout the world, with special attention to participation by aboriginal peoples; emphasis is on forms of governance, public participation, and adaptive learning.
GEOG	432	Radical Traditions of Decolonization and	Decolonial theory and practice through an examination of Liberation	critical Indigenous and critical race scholarship and activism.
GRSJ	301	Gender, Race and Indigeneity in Canada	Gender and indigeneity in the documented histories and 01103	301	dender, nace and margementy in canada	narrated lives of Indigenous people in Canada.
GRSJ	415	Critical Racial and Anti-Colonial Feminist GK21	415		Critical anti-colonial and feminist analyses of colonial and Approaches	racial subjugation, as well as the many modalities of indigenous and minority resistance.
HGSE	352	First Nations Governance and Natural Resource	The political, economic, and legal environment of Management	Aboriginal-Canadian relations and its influence on resource use and management; review of historic relationships, emerging case law, and new reconciliation frameworks. A core element of the Haida Gwaii Semester.
HGSE	359	Ecosystem-Based Management Seminar	History, definitions, and applications of EBM; challenges of 0	achieving both economic and environmental well-being with a focus on resource use and management on Haida Gwaii. Part of the Haida Gwaii Fall Semester.
LICCE	360	Occan Doomlo, Cultura and Tradition	The relationship between the culture of the Haida people
HGSE	360	Ocean People, Culture and Tradition	1 and their marine environment; and traditional and modern approaches to management of marine resources.
LICCE	370	Introduction to Decilioned Theory in	Theory of social content of resilience as applied to ever
HGSE	370	Introduction to Resilience Theory in	Theory of social-ecological resilience as applied to cross-Community	cultural community settings, using case studies from communities on Haida Gwaii and other exceptional cases of community resilience.
HGSE	372	Language and Cultural Continuity	An exploration of language as a means of looking at culture, and cultural continuity. Using Xaad Kilthe Haida language as a framing device, students will explore the integral connections between language, culture, history, land, health and resilience.
HIST	302	History of the Indigenous Peoples of North	Indigenous peoples from pre-contact to the present in HIST	332	America	Canada and the U.S. Topics include colonial frontiers, America	disease, fur trade, government policies, environment, gender, religion, oral narratives, activism, urbanization, LUCT	205	History of British College 1	and identity.
HIST	305	History of British Columbia	The social, political, cultural, environmental, and economic transformations that have made British Columbia. Topics include the histories of Indigenous and settler peoples, the modern state, migration, activism, and identity.
HIST	396	Environmental History of North America	Overview of land use and environmental change in Canada and the United States; examines ideas and practices that shaped indigenous and non-indigenous resource 1		La catalographic and a catalographic and a catalographic and a figure exploitation, management, and activism to the end of the [ -	T		I

HIST	464	First Contacts in the Pacific	An interdisciplinary history of early European contact with the Indigenous peoples of the northwest coast of North America and the Pacific Islands.
HIST	250A	Latin American History	Exploring themes of colonialism, indigenous life, national ·	imaginaries, dictatorships and transitions to democracy through different forms of telling Latin American history.
			Includes epistolary writing, maps, eyewitness accounts, chronicles, actions, novels, films, built environment and city plans, testimonios, and plays.
KIN	368		Historical and contemporary issues in Canada that shape
		Canada	Indigenous sport and physical activity, health programs, and policies.
KIN	484A	Advanced Seminar in Indigenous Sport,	Topics explore the relationship between Indigenous
		Physical Activity and Health - ADV SEM INDG	physical cultures, physical activity, health and wellbeing.
		SPR
LAW	200	Indigenous Settler Legal Relations	Critical examination of the history and legacy of colonial 3	legal orders in Canada. This course is compulsory for students who commence their Juris Doctor degree in
			_
1.030/	204	Aborioinal and Turata Diabta	September 2020 or later.
LAW	291	Aboriginal and Treaty Rights	An overview of the unique constitutional status and rights of Aboriginal Peoples in Canada.
LFS	340	First Nations Health and the Traditional Role of	This Interprofessional Health and Human Service (IHHS)
		Plants	course covers the First Nations medical systems and medicinal plants. Bridging the traditional with modern sciences. Credit will be granted for only one of LFS 340 or IHHS 301.
LING	433	Native Languages of the Americas	Survey of the indigenous languages of the Americas. Study of the basis of genetic classification and areal similarities.
			The structure of representative languages will be presented and contrasted. The present status of American Indian languages will be considered. Note: this course is N 41N15	470	Ladiana a Bandana di Mista in Canada	not necessarily offered every year.
MINE	470	Indigenous Peoples and Mining in Canada	Historical context of Indigenous peoples of Canada interactions with the development of mineral resources.
			Current best practices and systems supporting effective engagement and involvement of Indigenous peoples in the development of mines and mineral resources.
PHRM	323	Pharmaceutical Care in Indigenous Health	Indigenous health in Canada and the role pharmacists' cultural humility and safety can play when collaborating with other health professionals and Indigenous communities to provide care and healing.
SOCI	220	Sociology of Indigenous Peoples	Sociological perspective of Indigenous peoples and issues
3001	220
CDDI.	404	In the second Health 1991 and the S	both internationally and within Canada.
SPPH	404	Indigenous Health: Historical Impacts and	This course covers an epistemological approach that Contemporary Approaches	considers the social determinants of health and Indigenous spiritual-environmental and cultural perspectives and approaches to health and wellness.
	-		